Cover artwork titled Wingnut was created by Artist Guest of Honor, Sarah Clemens. It is used with her permission and she retains all rights.

Thanks extended to Lori J. E. Turi for assembling the first version of this guide for Arisia 2007. 2009 and 2010 editions were compiled and designed by Lia Olsborg.

Welcome to Boston. Let's Eat!

You've arrived in town just ahead of the snow. You've got a room key, stowed your bags, stood in the registration line, and, as you pinned on your badge, your stomach started to complain about its lack of food. That's where we come in.

Arisia is happy to provide this guide to many restaurants and services near the three Arisia hotels (the Hyatt Regency, Le Méridien, and Courtyard Boston Cambridge). While we make every effort to provide accurate information, Arisia cannot guarantee the hours, offerings or quality of any independent establishment. Phone numbers are included with listings where available. If you have specific questions or concerns regarding any of our listings, we suggest you phone ahead.

Many of the establishments in this Guide are also marked on the included maps. Directions for any restaurant not found on the map can be obtained at the Arisia Information desk.

Getting Around Cambridge & Boston

Automobile

Frankly, we recommend walking or taking the subway or a shuttle bus to get to food. Parking is often expensive and hard to find, not to mention contending with traffic on the way to your destination.

Getting Around Cambridge & Boston (cont'd)

Public Transit (Subway and Bus)

If you take the subway while you're here, you'll probably be on the Red Line at Central Sq. or the Green Line B train at the Boston University campus, just over the BU bridge. Subway fare is $2 ($1.70 with Charlie Card) per trip. Daily ($9) and weekly ($15) passes are also available.

Relevant stops on the Red Line:

Alewife (The northern end of the Red line, parking $5/day)

Davis, Porter, and Harvard Squares (many restaurants and shops)

Central Square (nearest Red line stop to the Hyatt, Le Méridien, many restaurants and shops)

Kendall Square (nearest Red line stop to the Marriot, shuttle stop, some restaurants and shops)

Park Street (transfer to Green line trains)

Downtown Crossing (transfer to Orange line trains)

South Station (main Amtrak train station)

Relevant stops on the Green Line B train:

BU West and BU Central Stations (The closest T stops on the Green Line to the Hyatt. About a 1/2 mi. walk.)

Kenmore Station (many restaurants, transfer to C and D trains)

Copley Station (near Newbury St. restaurants and shops, transfer to E train)

Government Center (short walk across City Hall Plaza to Quincy Marketplace, restaurants, shops, and bars. Transfer to Blue Line to airport.)

The #1 bus also runs down Mass. Ave, past MIT and Central Square terminating in Harvard Square. Bus fare is $1.50 per trip ($1.25 with Charlie Card).

The T runs approximately 530a-1230a. Complete bus, subway, and commuter rail maps, schedules, and fare information is available online at <http://www.mbta.com>.

Taxi

If you need a taxi, we recommend going to the Concierge Desk in the Hotel Lobby. They will call a reputable and reliable cab company for you. Official taxi fares (as quoted by MASSPORT/2009) are:

- Meter Rates: $2.60 for the first 1/7th mile or less, $0.40 for each additional 1/7th of a mile, Flat Rate: $3.20 per mile.
- Waiting Time: $28.00 per hour.
- Additional tunnel and airport fees from Logan Airport: $7.50 ($2.25 airport fee, plus $5.25 tunnel toll)
