OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sarah Clemens' prints did not arrive in time, so she has them available on her website at a special price for Arisia attendees.

Arisia 2001 Conchair Elka Davidoff and her husband, Solomon, are sorry they couldn't be here this weekend, but are pleased to announce the birth of their son early Sunday morning. Everyone is fine but tired.

The 3rd Annual Mad Scientist Laugh Contest drew four aspiring aspirants to the Evil League of Evil, Arisia Local Chapter #434. Each aspirant was strong, but only one could win. The newest inductee into the local chapter is Mistress Ratchet, aka Cheryl Braverman. Her plans to dominate the world (and men) were terrifying, second only to her laugh! The judges swear her winning score of 69 out of a possible 80 was not influenced at all by her corset! Congratulations to this year's winner, who will be invited to judge next year's crop of aspiring evildoers!

SECURITY & SAFETY CORNER

A reminder for our attendees: Drink water and keep hydrated!

Take care: the roads are icy and slick, and we want to see you at Arisia next year.

SPECIAL THANKS

We'd like to thank all the volunteers and staff who make Arisia possible, especially the Heroes of Arisia 2010:

Emily Coombs	Jet Cultir
Lisa Holsberg	Steve Huff
September Isdell	Bryan Maynard
Skip Morris	Susan Mozzicato
Roger Neumann	Lia Olsborg
Kris Snyder	Janet Stickle
Ann Thomas	Conor Walsh

VOLUNTEERS

Attention to all Volunteers! Leaving so soon? Need more volunteer hours? We still have jobs open! Come down to 205 and sign up! Still lots of fabulous swag left, too!

Help Art show load out at 10 AM today, and please help Tech load out later in the day. Anyone who can help on Tuesday would be greatly appreciated!

Remember: load out after 6 PM counts double for time— work for 4 hours, get 8 hours of credit.

As a reminder, after 8 hours, you can get a volunteer shirt; after 12, you can get into Arisia 2011 from the work you did on Arisia 2010.

DONATIONS & GIFTS

Do you have glasses to donate? Drop your donations off at the Info Desk and all glasses will be given to OneSight.org.

The fan guests of honor would like Arisians to know that any proceeds from sales of Kevin Roche's Corvidian Aeroscaphe prints will go to the SFWA's emergency medical fund.

The final tally of the Heinlein Blood Drive is in: 132 persons offered to donate blood, with 101 successful donors. The medical personnel said this was more than a single bus of theirs had ever done. Thanks, Arisians!

Arisia Bids for Haiti

A number of dealers have set aside an item or two in their shops for Arisia members to bid on. All money made on these items will be sent to an organization agreed upon by the dealer and the purchaser. Please look for and bid on these items as you visit our generous dealers. If nothing catches your fancy, consider sending some money to these organizations yourself.

In December 2007, Discworld author Terry Pratchett was diagnosed with "an embuggerment," as he calls it: Early-Onset Alzheimer's Disease. In hopes of saving him — and the 35 million others worldwide with Alzheimer's Disease — Con Flair Buttons (Room 317) is selling buttons saying "Save Discworld" and "Disembugger Terry Pratchett" for $5. Proceeds will go to the Alzheimer's Research Trust.

The Never-Never-Land party raised $123 for the Home for Little Wanderers, a Boston-based orphanage and charity. Special thanks to all our pre-supporters, staff, and attendees!
